For every woman who has been sexually abused, even if you have dealt with the emotional aspects, it would assist your healing if you would gain cognitive understanding the abuse pattern that injured you.

“UNDERSTANDING SEXUAL ABUSE” ... A PRESENTATION SERIES

This is a valuable 6-8 session psycho-educational presentation-series by Cynthia Davis, LCSW, one of our Licensed Clinical Social Workers. Cynthia Davis was a full-time clinician for UConn Health Center’s Correctional Institution Clinical team; she is now practices solely at A&FCC. She is certified in sexual abuse counseling through Connecticut Sexual Abuse Crisis Service (SACS).

This in NOT Group Therapy; the format is primarily the “presentation of information” by Ms. Davis, with some time for questions and discussion. This Series #1 is for women 18 and older who have been sexually abused in your childhood or adolescence. She will assist you and the other survivors to increase your cognitive understanding of what happened, so that you can better heal emotionally.

The sessions will be on Saturdays, 9:30 - 11:00 AM, beginning Saturday, February 12th and running for 6-8 sessions. Contact Ms. Davis at (203) 271-1234 to ask questions and/or to meet each other to register for this series.

[In the future, Ms. Davis will schedule three similar Series:
(#2) Male victims of sexual abuse;
(#3) Family of sexually abused members;
(#4) Medical, mental-health, and educational professionals.]
